False Fairytale

Disguised as Prince Charming,
my eyes saw perfection.
You were gallant and bold,
and I blinded with deception.

My heart pleaded for you,
desired your loving glance.
But my brain said “no,
let go here’s your chance.”

I clung to the idea
that you could be mine.
I wasted my feelings,
and wasted my time.

How did I fall
for someone like you?
How could I have possibly
been such a fool?

Your true colors shone,
brighter than fool’s gold.
I should have given up,
the first time I was told.

You were a prince,
but not of my fairytale.
You were a villain,
who stole a heart so frail.

So now our chapter closes,
we don’t have to pretend.
We had our fun,
now goodbye, and the end.
